GILLARD'S SHEEP DIP

Supplied to the Prince of Wales's Farm at SANDRINGHAM
TESTIMONIALS.

From Mr. John J. Mahon, Capilla del Señor, June 29, 1881.—The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of curing scab in sheep, I have seen many specifics used, and I consider Gillard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.

From Mr. James M. Thomas, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881.—Having given a good trial to Gillard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.

From Mr. Wm. Petty, Estancia Caro, Colonia, Sept. 20, 1881—
"I feel great pleasure in informing you that the sheep dip supplied by you to me under the name of Gillard's Sheep Dip has had surprising results on my English long-woolled rams; it has kept them entirely free from scab after only twice using it, although those rams have been constantly running in a flock of scabby sheep. I intend for the first time to give it a trial with the whole of my English breed of sheep as soon as I have them shorn, as I feel satisfied I shall with that did keep scab out of the flock.'

From Messrs. Patrick Mahon, junr., Ciriaco Morales, and James Murray, Capilla del Señor, Sept. 18, 1881—
"It gives us great pleasure to inform you that, after giving a good trial to Gillard's non-poisonous sheep dip, we can pronounce it to be the best specific we have used as yet, and we are fullly determined for the future to use no other remedy."

MONTEVIDEO.

The present is one of the most critical moments in the history of the Banda Oriental. If the new Government of President Santos succeed in enlisting the countenance and support of the respectable and influential men of Montevideo, then all will be well and the Republic may be said to enter on an Augustan era. Drs Herrera y Obes and Terra taking office in the new Cabinet is regarded as one of the very best signs. A week before General Santos became President no one ever supposed that such men would be seen in the Government House, but the people of Montevideo are gradually getting sense, and awakening to the necessity of sending their best men to help the Government rather than keep away as before and allow the political riff-raff that have so long held about the Government House to absorb everything and sponge the country into the most hopeless bankruptcy. Fully alive to the very critical state of affairs here, it was with no little curiosity I visited, in company with Chevalier Oldham, H. E. General Santos, President of the Uruguay Republic.

The Government House is a very splendid pile; it was purchased of the River Plate Bank by Col. Latorre, about 4 years ago; but for Mr Weldon, manager of the Bank, it is probable that the Government House would have been built on te site of the English cemetery, as the late Major Munro had been in treaty withthe Government for the sale of the British cemetery; but the present site of the Government House, in the grand Plaza Independencia, is infinitely superior. Mr Oldham, on presenting cards, was received by an aide-de-camp, as black as Cetewayo himself, and politely informed that he came on the wrong day, but a general officer who was also in attendance requested us to wait a moment, and he would see the President's secretary. After a few moments' delay we were ushered into a grand saloon and requested to wait a few moments for H.E. The sala is one of the grandest we have seen, and with furniture almost as new as the Government itself. One side of the room is almost taken up with Blanes's celebrated picture of the 33 heroes.

The mirrors, carpets, chairs, carved marble chimney-piece, gorgeous velvet curtains perfectly astonished us. 'Why the Government House of Buenos Aires', I remarked to Mr Oldham, 'is like an estancia house compared with this.' Not even in Downing street could one expect greater magnificence; golden wreathed chains hung from the stately mirrors which if they cost a paper dollar must be at least worth 1,000 pats each. Whilst pondering on such remarkable luxury and the general expensive get-up of everything around, a side door opened, and a young man dressed in severe military uniform walked in and addressing Mr Oldham stood straight in front of me. I was introduced, and the General then led us to the other side of the room; he took the chair of state himself, and in an instant we were all on the most friendly terms. 'How is Buenos Aires, Mr. Mulhall, and how is President Roca?' was his first interrogatory. Gradually the conversation turned on the state of the camps in the Banda Oriental. I spoke to H.E. about the shocking want of protection to life and property with as much zeal as if I owned one of the largest estancias. I thought to myself I should perhaps never have a better opportunity to speak up for my countrymen in the B. Oriental camps. General Santos heard me out. Mr Oldham ratified everything I said, and then H.E. replied that all the attention of his Government would be directed to the matter, that the hitch was the slow dilatory tribunals, but that he hoped to have this great defect reformed. One of his regiments was now scouring the frontier departments; five well known 'matreros' were already caught and now being brought to town, but the bringing to town was the blunder: all these villains should be tried outside and wherever they were convicted of a crime termed 'alevoso', they should then and there be shot. Summary jurisdiction, H.E. said, is what is wanted for the camp, and without it the camp is nowhere. The interview lasted over half an hour. H.E. bid me put faith in his Government and in the people, who were tired of misrule and misgovernment. The people, he said, are determined to push the country ahead and I count on them for support and I must and will succeed. President Santos then spoke with Mr Oldham about the repairing of the Flores Island cable, a work in which he has been engaged for the last week, but delayed owing to the bad weather. He sent his best regards to President Roca and regretted much that he was unable to attend the opening of the Exhibition. We then took leave and started off for the Pocitos. President Santos is about 35 years of age, not to say tall and of a slight build; unlike General Roca, he always dresses in military uniform; he is polished in his manners and has a winning, impressive way which persuades one that he means well, and has full determination to carry out his programme.

THE THREE-CORNERD LIMITS QUESTION

SETTLED AT LAST.

The following is the final decision of the Supreme Federal Court in the triangular Boundary Question between the provinces of B. Aires, Santa Fe and Cordoba:

First—The boundaries of Buenos Aires with Santa Fe and Cordoba are—The Arroyo Medio for its whole length to the middle of the Laguna de Cardoso—A straight line from said lake through the middle of Lake Chañar and ending at Parallel 34° 22' Lat., then along this parallel to 5th Meridian from B. Aires, and said Meridian up to the National territories.

Second—The boundaries between Cordoba and Santa Fe are—A straight line from the head of the Arroya Las Mojarras through parallel 34° 23' (dividing with B. Aires at half a degree short of the 5 Meridian from Buenos Aires) along the said stream to its confluence with the Rio Tercero; this river to the mouth of the Arroyo de las Tortugas and the Cañada de San Antonio, and from the middle of this Cañada, between the Quebracho Herrado and the Quebrachito, a straight line northwards to a point two leagues east of Fuerte los Morteros, and then another line which touching the boundary of Los Altos ends in the Laguna de los Porongos.

And bearing in mind that Santiago del Estero is interested in this last part of the line, although it has taken no part in the question, it is hereby declared that what has been decided on this point is without prejudice to the rights of said province of Santiago and what Congress may hereafter decide respecting the National territories.

Let this decision be notified by the Secretaries to those interested.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

GENERAL NEWS.

February 18, 1882,

It might happen that the English ladies in Buenos Aires have been distressed by a telegram announcing that an accident had occurred to the Queen, or that Her Majesty had a narrow escape. The meadacious shouts of newspaper-boys and the bateaced bills of special evening editions in the streets on the night before last led us all even here to a similar conclusion. On reading the account it turned out that on her way from the railway station to Buckingham Palace and on nearing the latter place, Her Majesty was received by an unusually large crowd of sight-seers in the park. The loyal demonstrations of the people were too much for one of the Buckingham Palace 'town horses,' as they are called at the Royal Mews, to distinguish them from the smaller and perhaps heavier-worked animals at Windsor. The horse reared two or three times, and at last threw the outrider who rode it. He was close to the near side of the Queen's carriage and was flung to the left. As the newspaper reporter describes the terrible event—'had the man Thompson been on the off side he would have infallibly been projected into the royal conveyance.' The notion of the man Thompson, who very nearly broke his own head, being 'projected' on to the lap of the Queen or of the Princess Beatrice caused a deep sensation. The Queen herself, with her usual good sense and good heart, simply stopped the carriage and waited to see if the outrider's accident was serious and if he was properly attended to, and went on amid the cheers of the bystanders. Naturally later in the afternoon—the occurrence took place about 2.30 p.m.—some of the diplomatic world called at the Palace, and next day Mr. Warton in the House of Commons seized the occasion to ostentatiously set aside all public business as of no comparative importance, and pompously asked Lord Hartington if he could inform the House as to the reported accident to Her Majesty the Queen. Lord Hartington, certainly out of no want of respect to the throne or its occupant, but perhaps out of secret contempt for the questioner, answered dryly 'that he had heard of no accident to the Queen.' To this Ministerial offence was added the fact, that owing to a slight cold Mr. Gladstone was confined to his room and unable to go to Buckingham Palace to make inquiries as to the Queen's health. It was quite true that he was well enough in the evening to take his place in the House of Commons and make a very good speech. No doubt he wisely reserved himself for public business, knowing that beyond the spill of the outrider nothing had occurred to inconvenience Her Majesty.

The House of Lords, on the motion of the Earl of Donoughmore, by 90 to 53 voted for a select committee to inquire into the working of the Irish Land Act. A select committee could summon the three chief commissioners from Dublin, as well as all the sub-commissioners, and make them discover their innermost thoughts. Besides, the Land Act has only been four months in operation and the present vote of the Lords amounts almost to a recantation, or rather to a withdrawal of the admitedly unwilling consent they gave to the act. It is part of the opening campaign which, with many vicissitudes, including perhaps the defeat of the present Ministry, will have to be fought out to the bitter end between the people of the United Kingdom and the landed interest. You will have seen that the same night in which in one of my late letters I commented on the stupidity of the average English notion that Home Rule was one of those subjects out of the province of debate, Mr. Gladstone himself admitted in the House his respect for the opinion of Home Rulers, but confessed he did not see how the local government of Ireland by the Irish could be made compatible with Imperial interests, and he called upon the Home Rulers to specify their plans. This admission, although in various ways it had already been announced at Midlothian and other places, caused a complete scare in the Cockney press. I am glad to see that the provincial press, including a Scotch paper, the Northern Echo, took the same view in regard to that hopeless, senseless English scare in the presence of views not sanctified by the imprimatur of 'nice people.' Mr. Gladstone's speech seems to have rather puzzled the Irishmen themselves, and for the moment it took the wind out of the sails of the Parnellites. Mr. Sexton, in his scathing speech against English misrule in Ireland, did venture to compliment Mr. Gladstone on the admission he had made, but it was something so unusual for Irishmen to be asked to be specific and to explain what they meant and what they wanted, that it is not until to day that they have accepted the challenge, and Mr. Justin M'Carthy announces his intention of postponing and altering a motion he had on the paper, in view of Mr. Gladstone's desire to have the plans of the Home Rulers formulated. Before the land question or the question of the local and county government, or, indeed, any other reform can be attacked it is necessary to pass the 'cloture,' or as it is now called the 'closure,' and alter the procedure of the House. The Government scheme is unusually thorough-going and opposed to the vulgar English notion of compromise. Hence it was at once attacked by the Times, who in a grandiloquent and domineering tone threatened the Ministry with ifs 'uncompromising opposition.' But the Ministry is not of the stuff to be alarmed at the threats of Mr. Walter or of Mr. Edward Lawson, or city shopmen, banker Jew, jiago or gentile. The Government knows the power it has at its back, and that even if defeated at a general election by county interests the Conservatives would tremblingly assume the reins, and be compelled to make the reforms themselves amidst riot, and in Ireland bloodshed; the landed interest, which is the Conservative interest, would in the end be more helplessly swamped than if reforms were left to the present Government or Liberal majority, one-half of which is confessedly more nearly allied to Sir Stafford Northcote and Mr. Smith than to Mr. Chamberlain and Sir Charles Dilke. This the Conservatives know and they have said, and they are to be believed, that at present they are not anxious to come into power. On the other hand the Liberal Ministry know it also, and they intend to be firm on the Parliamentary Procedure Question, and it necessary make a Cabinet question of it. Parliamentary institutions were fast falling into discredit. Session after session passed away and ordinary social measures, like the Bankruptcy Act, were shelved year after year, that a Mr. Biggar or a Randolph Churchill might air his grievances, Sir Stafford Northcote has himself admitted that the closing of a debate by a bare majority is the only radical method of attaining the end desired. His only objection to the closure was that it was 'not English,' and he did not think the House was yet prepared to adopt it.

General Skobeleff, whose recent pan-Sclavic and anti-Teutonic speech in Russia caused a certain sensation, afterwards allayed by semi-official communications to the press, has repeated his opinions in a much more violent manner in addressing a deputation of Servian students in Paris. He said that Russians were not masters in their own houses. They were the dupes of an intriguing intruder, the oppressor of Slavs and Russians. 'You all know him,' he said, 'it is the German.'

The habitual mendaciousness of the official press in Germany and on the Continent in general is such that it is useless to form an opinion as to the practical significance of General Skobeleff's utterances. For the same reason, it is at present barely necessary to draw your attention to the tales from the Russian papers in regard to Prince Bismarck's reported plans of placing Poland under the suzerainity of the German Emperor and annexing the German provinces of Russia. At the same time unlsss, as is quite probable, General Skobeleff's last speech is an invention of teh French press, if is hardly possible he would be permitted to indulge in such language unless Russia had made up her mind to fight Austria in Herzegovina and run the risk of war with Germany. Again it is equally impossible to suppose that she is mad enough to engage Germany and Austria single-handed. She evidently counts upon France.

I send you separately some items of news, including details connected with the Furneaux romance, which is likely to be a long affair, and is already too much for my column. By telegram you will have heard of the loss of the R.M. intercolonial steamer Tiber at Porto Plata, on her way to St. Thomas. Crew and mails saved.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Royal Mail steamer Avon sailed yesterday, with a full mail. The day was splendid for embarking. We gave a list of her passengers in our last issue.

The whole town is talking of the ridiculous fuss about the Statue of Independence in the Exhibition, so injudiciously raised by our Spanish colleagues. On Sunday everybody rushed to see the statue, which is a splendid work of art. What was the general astonishment on seeing that the lion had been cemented over so as to look like a kind of cross between a lamb and a cat! Why this is worse than ever! Surely even a beaten lion was better than the nondescript Liberty has now at her feet in Mr Ferrari's statue. The amiable weakness of the Committee in consenting to allow a fine work of art to be mutilated in order to conciliate such childish susceptibilities has made the laugh louder than ever. The whole affair is much to be regretted, and the leading Spanish residents are the first in condemning it.

Yesterday was the 21st anniversary of the terrible earthquake at Mendoza, in which 14,000 people perished.

The telegrams from Rio are still terribly pluvious. Immense damage done to the railways and plantations. We hope the rain wont come down here when it has drowned them all out in Rio.

The Niger's mails were delivered on Sunday. The telegrams have taken all the salt out of the newspapers; nevertheless we give some extracts in our Supplement. We have New York papers to Feb. 7th. The Mormon agitation is warming up. The Saints see that their hour has come and intend to submit to what Congress may direct.

We have received by the mail a splendid illustrated map of London, showing the public buildings, railways, Parks etc. It is worth having a look at.

An association has been formed to raise a fund to present an album to President Roca for having settled the Uhilian Question. Men of all parties must agree that never before has an Argentine President been able to render such a transcendent service to his country, and it well deserves some special recognition.

The triangular duel between this province, Santa Fe and Cordoba is over. The Supreme Federal Court has settled the whole business. After eleven 'considerandos' the Court gives the 'fallo' that will be found in another column. Santiago del Estero throws in for something in the scrimmage.

The rumoured accident to Her Majesty was all nonsense. A restive horse under her carriage reared and threw one of the postilions almost into Princess Beatrice's lap, and out of this the London papers made a sensation, and some duffer in Parliament asked a question about the 'accident to the Queen' and got 'sat on' by Lord Hartington for his pains. See our London Letter.

The Village of the Plain is naturally a little excited over the move to have the Capital of the Province there provisionally, till Ensenada is ready. We have always advocated Flores as the provisional capital. Belgrano cannot hold a candle to it. Many people think that the cost of turning such a swampy hole as Tolosa into a habitable city will eventually prove so monstrous that the idea will be abandoned. It is hard to say.

Another paragraph for our fair readers—from a Fashion exchange: "The revival of black silk for costumes will soon be placed beyond a doubt. There is an innate belief in every woman's heart in the superiority of black silk, as an all-round material, over every other. On occasions when satin would be too elaborate, cashmere not elaborate enough, and velvet ambitious, a well-made black silk is exactly what is needed. For a call of condolence, or a visit paid to a bride, it is equally suitable. Those whose faith has remained firm, through evil and good report, will be delighted that black silk is again to become a fashionable fabric."

We have to thank a kind subscriber for a nice present—a box of 'Manifold Slip' pens, used in all the English Telegraph offices, warranted to run over the paper at a speed of 150 miles an hour, and never to write 'bolas.' This latter quality is invaluable for conscientious editors, people are so fond of trying to impose on their proverbially ingenuous nature. How is it that telegrams often tell such lies?

Sunday was a glorious day, and Mr Todo-el-mundo and his wife and family made for the 'Exposicion' as a matter of course. If proof were wanted of the immense interest excited by this first attempt at a genuine Exhibition in this country, the people one sees in the tram cars would afford it. The old and the young, the sick and the hale, the halt and the maimed, all want to see it. Old fossils of both sex have turned up in hundreds, and the admiration of these old people is beautiful to see. The Palace was crowded on Sunday, yet did not look so, such is the capacity of the building. The heat inside was somewhat oppressive. After all, the repeated delays in opening the Show were blessings in disguise; had it been opened in the blaze of fierce February heat, the visitors could not have supported it, day or night. Dr Pangloss was right perhaps; things are often for the best in this best of all possible worlds. It is decidedly curious to see how great is the interest the public seem to take in fire, electricity, and combustibles in general. The Electric Light is kept going every night, but its effect is necessarily marred by the myriads of gas lights, Messrs Lachore and Samson's 'Mata Fuego' attracts crowds. We attribute this public interest in inflammable and non inflammable things to the recent terrible fires. The Rio Fire Brigade are expected now in a few days.

Mr Boeuf has thrown up the direction of the Naval School, for which he was specially engaged in France, and has accepted the Chair of Engineering in the University.

The latest rumour in Provincial quarters is that a new loan is to be launched to build the new capital, and a new tax will be imposed on 'guias' to meet the interest and amortization.

The nip in the weather yesterday brought back several families to town from their summer quarters, and many Pocitos bathers are expected to arrive back here this morning. Autumn begins to-day, and we hope it will be as fine as the dead summer.

Mr Penser, the well-known account book maker, sent round yesterday a neat catalogue of his exhibits in the Palace at the Once.

The Census of the province is finished, but the Blue Book will not be ready till the beginning of next year. The population of the province of Buenos Ayres (exclusive of this city) is found to be 500,000. Most people hoped it would prove more, but the Interior now gets most of the immigration.

The Brazilian Section of the Exhibition will be ready for next Sunday, when there will be a little special inauguration.

The banquet to Dr Wilde on Saturday was a most magnificent affair. Amongst the speakers were Dr Ruiz de los Llanos, Dr Carlos Pellegrini, Dr Pedro Pacios, Dr Onesimo Leguizamon, Dr Jorge Damianoviche, Dr Astiguete, Sr Stein, Mr Sandford, Sr Posse, Madero and some others.

Half the people living near the Riachuelo are in bed sick from the awful stench from the river. It is time for the Municipality to take up this nuisance vigorously. Let no man be in the least surprised if a 'caso sopechoso' be reported down there soon. The miracle is that there has not been one yet.

The latest telegrams from the West Coast lead to a belief that a truce will be at once concluded between Chile and Bolivia, and Mr Trescott, the U. S. Envoy, is working heaven and earth to have it extended to Peru also, which Chile is reported to be not only willing but anxious to do. Is the end of this sad war approaching at last?

A very amusing and clever article on the history of "Moustaches" appeared in the Diario on Sunday.

The Municipality has decided to have no special agents for the new Lottery. It will sell the tickets itself at a fair discount to large buyers. This is the proper way. There wont be much 'shaving' on this new Lottery and the public will gain. Everything is now ready for the game to begin. There is terrific competition for the post of Administrador, with its salary of $7,500 m|c monthly. The attempted arrangement to allow of Montevidean Lottery tickets here with those of the new Lottery has fallen through, and so much the better.

A large galpon of the famous Amaral 'cabaña' at Moron was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning. Fifty six of the best sheep were destroyed, also some splendid horses, $300,000 m|c is the loss.

We beg to salute Governor Iriondo of Santa Fe, who arrived down on Sunday morning. H.E. comes, of course, to see the Exhibition and nothing else.

The 'Africana' to-night at the Colon. If you have ribs, 'habitues,' prepare to have them squeezed.

An awful affair is reported from the San Geronimo Colony where four women and two children of a family of ten were attacked with sudden illness and died, one on every succeeding day. The four survivors were about to fly when an old 'paisano' told them to remain, as he could unravel the terrible mystery. He set himself to watch, and at the dead of night an enormous black spider, the bite of which is more deadly than the rattlesnake's, was seen to creep from under a trunk and make for the bed of one of the women. The old man put his foot on the insect assassin and roused the family to tell them the danger was over. Pity the old gentleman did not come on the scene a little sooner.

National Bank Shares	121½

The market this morning reminded one of old days. The excitement at the ring was tremendous, and the shouts of the brokers could be heard in the Calle San Martin. It looked as if the bottom had been knocked out of the National Bank Share tub. Already in the early hours one could notice a despondent feeling amongst the speculators for a rise, and reflections on Saturday evening's operations led to dismal anticipations as to the prospects of the National Bank Shares. Rumors had been rapidly spread of a rupture of amicable relations amongst the members of the Syndicate, in which we do not believe. The outside market in general looks on the flare-up in the market as another manœuvre of the Italians to bring the stock to the front. They failed in driving prices up for the end of the month by their speculation for the end of April and now they bear the market. Ten thousand shares were sold before a quarter past one, and the operations took one back to November days; but the situation is changed. At that time all were buyers; now all are sellers; ten thousand shares more might have driven prices beneath 1 0 o/o. As it is, we remarked very many who sold out at 125 buying in again at 122 and 121½, and in reality the operations of the day were not so large. The hand of the Italians was felt in the situation, but it will not save their purse to drive shares under 120. The bulls look on the situation pretty quietly and still going to the fond hopes of seeing prices at 125 at the end of the month. A rise of 10 o/o so to say between this and the end of the month seems impossible, and the Italians will find it much easier to drive prices down 20 o/o than to raise them in a bona fide manner only 10 per cent. Distrust in the stock is on the increase, and intense disgust reigns amongst those who on Saturday speculated for a rise, the very keenest men on the market and the best informed authorities were taken in by the sudden flanking movement in the situation. The speculation attracted all the attention of the Bolsa, and not a single gold operation was whispered inside or outside the ring. The fluctuations yesterday in the shares represents 4 o/o, and this must lead to active speculation in order to recoup losses.

The Cedula was a pigmy next to the Bank Share, but operations, nevertheless, keep up well. Business in the stock was brisker than yesterday and over 700,000 pats were sold. In Series A a small operation was effected at 100½, but prices subsequently relapsed to 100¼, the usual quotation of the scrip. Series E was unusually firm and maintained rates in spite of the neglect of the market; prices for cash rule firm at 86; for the end of the month rates rose slightly from 85 to 86½, but the market closed at 86. Never before did business look so small as to-day alongside the gigantic speculation in National Bank Shares; prices on the other hand hold their ground and the scrip is buoyant.

The price of wools in the market is rising steadily. Good wools have already improved greatly, about $5 m/c per arroba, on the receipt of more favorable advices from Europe. Several artistas received telegrams with orders to buy on the basis of increased limits.

The neighbors of Lomas de Zamora have requested the Southern Railway for a change in the hour of the night train, owing to the Exhibition season. They want the usual 9 p.m. train to run out at 11 p.m.

Advices from Havre show that good wools are wanting in that market. Although already 185,000 bales have been shipped from this port, the stock of wool in Havre only amounts to 7,000 bales. The news from Antwerp is that the tendency of the wool market is rising. Good wools in our market are very much in demand, To-day in the South Plaza 108 m/o and 104 m/c were paid per arrobe for good wools. Mr Ginnocchio refused a large price for some good wools from Tapalquen. All tends to show that the good kinds of wool have improved and are in much demand.

Mr Michael Allen arrived to-day from Chacabuco, where he reports both camp and animals in the very best condition, in fact, sheep farmers have seldom had such a prosperous season.

Final arrangements were being made to-day to close up an old liquidation on the Bolsa: 19 o/o had already been paid on same; 50 o/o more is now to be paid to the creditors, which is welcome news.

The sales at the ring were as follows:—

Gold—
No operations.
Cedulas—

For cash E 17,200 at 86
For March 21st E 5,000 86

For April 30th E 10,000 8½ to deliver.
Sales, 207,200.
Nat. Bank Shares—
For cash 100 share at 121½
For March 31st 8,700 shares at 123 ½–122½ to 122½–½–122–121¾–½–¾
For April 30th 1,400 shares 123–122½–¾–122 to 122¼

Sales, 10,200.

The stagnation in the gold market to-day was remarkable. There is an utter apathy at the ring and no buyers of gold are to be found at 25.01 for cash, or 25.05 for the end of the month. The gold requirements of the market as reflected by the Bolsa must be very small. Even the slight speculation for a premium at long dates has died out, and brokers find it cheaper to change the gold at the counter in the bank.

An auctioneer was very nearly shot the other day for attempting to sell a house over the owner's head. It appears that some eleven years ago a well-known broker bought from the Municipality a piece of land, in a place then called Calle de Brandzen, or about to be called so. As years rolled on and the Municipal titles deeds grew old in the broker's safe, he sold the place with plans, titles, and everything that might be on the property to a friend of his, who immediately applied to the most popular auctioneer of the city, with the plans in his hand. The auctioneer took the plans, saw Calle Brandzen, advertized the place and on a fine Sunday morning planted his flag in front of a fine house on the supposed property; the owner threatened to shoot the auctioneer, and the auction had to be suspended. It appears that the Municipality is at fault, since some 9 years ago it gave the street where the original property stood another name, and the auctioneer very naturally made a mess of the whole affair, since the blocks in the city are all alike.

Exchange rates nominal: some amounts done at 49½.

Montevidean exchange ⅛ o/o premium.

The foreign public will be glad to hear that the Royal Mail Steamship Company, on receipt of the news announcing the demise of the late Mr H. A. Green, has named his son Mr. H. L. Green, the agent of the company in the River Plate. Mr H. L. Green well deserves the distinction and we augur for him the support of the entire market; the news of the nomination was received with pleasure on the Bolsa. At the same time Mr H. L. Green has been name agent of the insurance companies, his father represented.

Discounts in the market are by no means easy; the rates are for paper 7½ to 8 p. cent per annum; in gold 6½ to 7 per cent.

By the London papers we see that the last quotation of Central Argentine Railway shares was £10⅜; the shares in this market last week at £21.

17,000 arrobes of wool arrived in the Once the last two mornings. Most of the wool was sold at high and firm prices.

It is estimated that wheat has fallen 15 mje since the heavy arrivals from Santa Fe. Flour also is weak, and is likely to continue so in view of the superabundance of wheat.

Cablegrams from Europe to houses in the market order purchases of lambs' wools on the basis of limits, reduced 3 o/o.

The fine Gaelic steamer Arangorm (yellow lace) has arrived in port, consigned to Messrs W Samson & Co. She went up to Rosario to-day with a full cargo of railway material from Mr A Paz, the National Commissioner in Europe. Her cargo comprises:—

32,800 iron sleepers
34,300 keys
2,347 tie-bars
80 casks cotters.

There seems to be more activity in shipping circles and more enquiries for freights.

The fine R.M.S. Avon left to-day, crowded with passengers and with a full cargo; we published the list of passengers and cargo in Sunday's issue.

Messrs Beltar & Quesada sold yesterday in Flores a small quinta property, situated in the Calle Europa, for 260,000 m/c; upset price of the auction was 180,000 m/c.

Messrs M Cano & Co. sold the house Calle Juncal No. 355 for 85,000 m/c; buyer Mr O S Bowers. The upset price was 70,000 m/c.

The National Bank Share market opened with a gasp at 9the hours. The feeling at the close of the official hours was a stand-from-under one, and nobody dared to question the probable price in the evening; the closing price of 121, in the eyes of many, was the harbinger of a rise; after such a fall, a rise must come. But expectations were delusions as on last Saturday when the bulls pointed to the top of the Bolsa. The currents of speculation set in quickly at afterhours, and shares were sold by thousands. There was a general feeling of blank despair as the sovereign stock touched 20, and the speculation continued at that rate; but the market touched bottom and the stock rose heavily to 120½. Fifteen thou and shares were sold for the end of the month, and 2,000 for the end of April. Even in the palmiest days of Bolsa speculations we seldom remember such transactions. We noticed nearly all those who sold during official hours buying back again at after hours. The market was finally steadied by the entry of a fashionable Argentine broker, who took up some thousand shares for the end of April. To-day in fact we may say that 30.000 Shares were sold, as some sales were not marked on the black board. All the market was talking of the speculation and give the holders credit for drawing the whole attention of the Bolsa. Cedulas were completely neglected in the excitement, but some few Series A were sold at 100¼, about 20,000 Series E for the end of the month at 86.

We extract the following latest news from the London Economist of the 18th February:

"Last week from Lard Street was by far the dearest of all the leading European money markets and "call loans" here were from 2 to 3 o/o higher than in New York. The result was an influx of £1,186,000 in gold to the Bank from abroad during the week ended Wednesday, and advices of further remittances from America to an amount of about £300,000, while various sums are known to be on their way from Australia. Added to this, the French "haute banque", finding money plentiful on their hands, have become eager to absorb picked English bills at anything like the terms quoted here; while the payment of taxes has swelled the Government balance with the Bank of England. Thus the reserve has been increased £1,813,000—consisting of £377,000 in notes and £1,436,000 in gold paid into the Bank. In this way, the total reserve is now raised to £19½ millions; though still far short of the point of £16½ millions in the corresponding weeks in 1881 and 1880; and £17 millions in 1879. It is quite possible to make too much of this week's increase, for owing to the state of the Government balances, an expansion in the reserve at this time is the invariable rule—that in the same week last year being £3,347,000. But the discount market will not look beyond the immediate present; and as money has been forthcoming to repay a portion of the recent borrowings, and the Bank is no longer charging 7 o/o for advances, the result has been a rapid falling away of rates, until best bills were yesterday quoted fully ½ o/o under last week. To-day the rates are, however, a little firmer again.

"Argentine 9 o/o Treasury Bonds are about 5 down, upon a statement that, in spite of all previous assurances to the contrary, that Government have decreed that, as bonds have not been tendered for redemption, drawings shall be substituted for tenders. These bonds were introduced to this market about the middle of the last year, and were then quoted at nearly 13%, upon the express understanding that they were redeemable only at the holders' option. They are now quoted at 106. It is to be hoped for the good faith of the Confederation, so well preserved during the trials of 1877, that in these times of prosperity such high-handed dealings will not be persevered in. The recent 5 o/o conversion loan scheme was happily rejected, and we trust that all proposals to hamper with the rights of public creditors will be treated in the same manner.

"Mr Warmington this morning applied to Vice-Chancellor Hall for the appointment of an interim liquidator of the English and French Bank (Limited), Lombard Street, pending the hearing of a petition for the winding-up of the bank. He stated that the bank was the proprietor of a newspaper called Le Bulletin Quotidien, which was a valuable asset, and that it was necessary to keep it going. He required the authority of the Court for the liquidator to spend the money for the wages and other expenses of the paper. The Vice-Chancellor made the order asked for.

"The rates on the Stock Exchange are as follows:—

Argentine 6 o/o 1868	97½–98½
Argent. Publ. Works 1871	96½–97½
B. Aires 6 o/o 1873	95½–96½
Chilian 6 o/o, 1873	89½–90½
Brazilian 5 o/o, 1865	101 –102
Do 1871	99 -100
Do 1875	99 -100

"Discouraging reports have been received in regard to the Panama Canal. It is alleged that there is practically no result from the expenditure of f.140,000,000. The contract of MM. Couvreaux et Hersent to execute the entire excavation, amounting to f.512,000,000, is now said to be merely provisional, and not final. Three Americans have entered into a sub-contract to execute 6 million cubic metres, at a price under the estimates; but should they fail to carry it out they will forfeit only 20,000 dollars. Much sickness prevails among the workmen engaged at the Canal."

We extract from an English paper the following:—

"To the Editor of the "Money Market Review"

"Sir,

"As doubt still exists with regard to the right of Argentina Government to pay off their 9 o/o Treasury Loan at 110, or at any other price, without the consent of the bondholders, the enclosed opinion of Mr Benjamin, Q.C., will be interesting to holders of this Stock.

"I remain, &c,

"An Argentine Bondholder."

"Copy opinion of Mr Benjamin, Q.C.

"I am of opinion that the true effect of the Bonds and law in question (that is, the law of the Argentine Republic, of 19th Oct., 1876, under which the issues of the 9 o/o Treasury Bonds was authorized and the terms of the issue defined), is to create a security which cannot be paid off at par before the end of 25 years from the date of issue, without the assent of the holder. The sinking fund for the payment of the capital is only to be applied by inviting tenders, and, if no holder desires to make a bid, the Government will have no power to enforce redemption at any price—still less at par.

"(Signed) J. P. Benjamin,

"Temple, Jan. 16th, 1882."

We will sell to the highest bidder over and above the stipulated basis, for cash, 8¾ leagues of splendid camp, in the department of San Justo, (Province of Cordoba). Advices we have received about the above camp are most flattering—so let these who wish to secure good land cheap, look alive.

The shape of the lot, its rich pastures, and the liberal conditions on which it is offered for sale (in one or more lots), place it within reach of agriculturists, who require small lots of excellent land.

The low valuation put on this land compared with the prices obtained by the Government, 3,000 pats, is the best recommendation we can offer.

'Bayard' y 'Municipal' de sangre puro fueron introducidos al pais por la compañia, comprados en el castillo 'Mille Secousse' cerca de Burdeos, Presidente tambien puro nacio en el establecimiento 'Matanzas' arriba mencionado.

Creemos inutil entrar en mayores detalles sobre la cria Percheron que es una de las razas mas convenientes para la cruza con yeguas del pais, pues son animales fuertes, elegantes, fogosos y al mismo tiempo de una docilidad que no se encuentra en ninguno otra.

Tenemos una prueba de ellos en las varias yuntas que se ven en las calles de la ciudad procedentes de la cria del Sr. Cambaceres, unico criador de la raza que ha especido hasta ahora sus productos al publico.

La Compañia del Tramway hasta la fecha habia unicamente espuestos sus crias en varias esposiciones, obteniendo siempre premios, pero sin ofrecerlas en venta; hoy que lo hace, tienen los criadores una brillante ocasion para hacerse de animales de primer orden.

Los caballos y yeguas pueden verse en las caballerizas de la compañia en las 5 Esquinas y dos dias antes del remate en nuestra casa Alsina 78.

The Niger's Mails.

A Plymouth correspondent says that the investigation into the discovery of matches amongst some of the oakum saved from the fire in Devonport Dockyard has been brought to an abrupt conclusion. Every shred of oakum sayed was found saturated with water, whereas the matches were perfectly dry and easily ignited. This proves that an imposition was sought to be practised on the Admiralty, and the authorities are now convinced that the fire was due to spontaneous combustion. Consequently the Admiralty have issued instructions in all the dockyards for all the oakum to be opened out and examined. The storekeeper at Sheerness suggests that after the examination the oakum be stored in iron tanks.

There is reason to believe that the Government remain firm in their determination to adhere to the salient principles of the cloture as embodied in the first of the rules of procedure which have been laid on the table of the house. Their resolve is based upon the belief that it would be impossible in future to carry any approved measure of importance (within a reasonable period) without the aid of some provision which would prove effectual in frustating any organised system of delay or obstruction.

Immense excitement was caused in Limerick to-day by the receipt of an official telegram from Mr. Smith, county inspector, Clara, stating that last night as an officer of the 49th Regiment—a company of which is at present quartered at Scariff—and Mr Wilfrid Lloyd, brother of Mr Clifford Lloyd, R. M., were driving from that place to Bodyke, about four miles distant, they were fired on by an armed party who lay in ambush on the roadside. A policeman who was seated behind on the car in charge of the two gentlemen was shot in the chest, but not mortally, and later accounts say that he is progressing favourably. Mr Lloyd and the officer fired in the direction from which the shots came, but owing to the darkness which prevailed they are unaware if any of the shots took effect. Mr Clifford Lloyd, R.M., left Limerick to-day for the scene of the outrage accompanied by a large escort of police.

The execution of Robert Templeton for the murder of Betty Scott at Burnley took place on Monday at the prison, Strangways, Manchester. The representatives of the Press were not admitted. The condemned man passed a restless night. At six o'clock he was visited by the Rev. W Reid, Presbyterian minister, who remained with him until the execution. He was very penitent. He was conducted to the scaffold by the under sheriff and the governor. He tottered a little on the way. Marwood gave the man a drop of seven and a half feet, and death was instantaneous.

Yesterday the Speaker's warrant to issue a writ for the election of a member of Parliament for the county of Meath was received at the Hanaper Office, and the writ was forwarded by the evening post to the sheriff. The election is in the room of Mr. Alexander Martin Sullivan, who has accepted the office of steward or bailliff of her Majesty's Three Chiltern Hundreds of Stoke, Desborough, and Boneham in the county of Buckingham.

The report that the Government intend to take fresh action respecting Mr Parnell is devoid of foundation. The suggestion connected with the report in question, viz, that Mr Parnell would shortly be removed to London for trial, is likewise unfounded.

The Press Association wires—The Liverpool Ladies' Land League have sent Mr. Parnell a valentine in the shape of a one hundred pound cheque, to be devoted to the maintenance of Mr Parnell and his fellow-suspects in prison.

The Attorney-General for Ireland, Mr Johnson, will shortly vacate his seat for Mallow to fill the vacancy in the Queen's Bench caused by the death of Mr Justice O'Brien, Mr Porter will become Attorney-General, and Mr Nash Solicitor-General.

Although it is still somewhat remote from the time when the Government will definitely decide what steps they will take respecting the means to insure the preservation of law and order in Ireland, yet it has been decided to ask for the renewal during the present session of Parliament of the Protection of Person and Property (Ireland) Act.

The Dublin Gazette of Tuesday contains a proclamation declaring the baronies of Athlone, Ballintober North, Ballintober South, Ballymoe, Moycarn, and Roscommon, in the county of Roscommon, in a state of disturbance, and as requiring additional police. A second proclamation declares the baronies of Coshmore and Coshbride, Decies-within-Drum, Decies-without-Drum, Gaultiere, Glenahiry, Middlethird, and Upperthird, in the county Waterford, also in a disturbed state, and as requiring an additional establishment of police.

Telegrams from Constantinople give full details of the attack made by some Albanians upon Captain Selby, of her Majesty's ship Falcon, briefly reported yesterday by telegram. The Daily News correspondent gives the following account of the affair :—

The attack apparently arose out of a misunderstanding. The Falcon, in command of Captain Selby, was lying anchored near Artaki, whither she went early last week. On Monday Mr Consul Wrench and Captains Selby and Grenfell, accompanied by one marine, landed for the purpose of shooting. An Albanian addressed Captain Selby in Turkish, of which the latter is ignorant, but, believing the Albanian was begging for powder, he showed his cartridges, and was surprised at the Albanian striking him with his stick. Captain Selby put down his gun to show that he had no intention of firing. The Albanian seized it. Captain Selby called to Captain Grenfell, who came up and levelled his piece at the Albanian. The latter rushed away, shouting for help. Almost immediately afterwards he reappeared with another Albanian armed with a heavy axe. The first Albanian thereupon attacked Captain Grenfell. A short but powerful man, he snatched from the Albanian his pistol and struck him with it. At this moment the marine had come up and had fired at Captain Selby's assailant, in consequence of the latter having inflicted a terrible blow on Captain Selby. The two Albanians then made off, and Captain Grenfell and Captain Selby endeavoured to return to shore, but were followed immediatel by fifteen Albanians, who fell upon them unmercifully, three guns being broken over Captain Grenfell. They finally seized Captain Selby and Captain Grenfell and pinioned them.

At this moment Mr Wrench came up, having no suspicion whatever of anything being amiss, and was horrorstruck at the ghastly appearance of Captain Selby bound and covered with blood, and Captain Grenfell still more tightly bound, and with a halter about his neck. The Albanians gathered round them were yelling like demons, and one drew a large knife and made a thrust at Captain Grenfell, who was able to turn the thrust aside with his hand and wrist. Mr Wrench, addressing himself to the man whose appearance indicated that he might have some authority over the others told him quietly who the persons were whom the Albanians had attacked. He at length obtained permission to cut their bonds, and then offered himself as hostage in place of Captain Selby, who set out for the shore, accompanied by the marine. Then the two prisoners, Captain Grenfell and Mr Wrench, were marched off to a shepherd's cabin. Shortly afterwards Mr Wrench persuaded them to let him go, and after some time was followed by the Albanian chief, bringing Captain Grenfell. They embarked and came to town the same night.

Captain Selby passed a quiet night and was conscious yesterday, but unable to speak. His condition is considered critical. Lord Dufferin at once made representations to the Porte, and steps have been taken to arrest the perpetrators of the outrage. Lord Dufferin has telegraphed to the Foreign Office that the outrage was not due to fanatical or political motives, nor was the assault the act of brigands.

LATEST FROM PATAGONES

There has been a fair amount of rain in the camp, but weather still continues very warm, sheep and cattle improving, prices of wool, wheat and barley very low.

The pilot boat Ida arrived from Chubut after a run of 4 days, nothing particularly new from that quarter.

I hear that the Indians of Conesa have reaped the grand total of about 65 fanegas wheat and barley; what an harvest after all the bombast that there has been about this colony. Is it the poor Indian's fault? No. Is it the fault of the authorities in charge of the colony? Yes, to a very great extent. Will the result give even the seed that was sown? No.

The steamer Triunfo still aground 20 leagues from here, no present prospect of getting her afloat; she is a most unfortunate steamer, everlastingly aground, not having sufficient force to break the current on this river, and draws far too much water.

There is a deal of sickness in both towns at present especially amongst children, it is said to be greatly attributable to the stagnant water laying in the camp on the south side of the river for the last 3 years, caused by the first inundation and which has never dried up; the smell from it is sufficient to cause any fever or plague to breakout at any moment and imperil the lives of every soul in this once healthy place; cannot this be rectified? Yes, Then why is it not done?—It could be accomplished for a very small outlay, viz: by cutting a canal to the river from the water and drain it all off; or perhaps it might be turned to avail and be made a branch of this river by opening another canal at a point above Conesa called Cabeza de Buey, where the river at times overflows its banks, and have a regular ebb and flow with the tide as on the Rio Negro. The very Indians of Conesa, who have been wasting their time for the last 3 years, might have been put to this work and therefore save the Government the wages of peons; it would that way only require the services of an engineer to superintend and direct the work; it would cause a vast amount of land to be made available for agriculture, or any other purpose, which to-day is lying a barren waste.

The girl's public school has at last opened after having been closed 5 months, by a new school-mistress, the other having resigned. The boy's public school is not yet open, although long past the time for being so, the school master being absent in B. A. for vacation. The boys and girls' public school of San Javier is in the same pitiable plight, both master and mistress being absent in B. A. for the same purpose. Is such the way to advance education in this far out of the way place? some at least think so; or is it that these poor teachers cannot get their paltry hard earned salary and are waiting and waiting in hopes of the Government paying them, perhaps a small fraction of what is owing to them, before they return to their laborious and head-aching occupation of drumming the A. B. C. into the heads of some dull and stupid children.

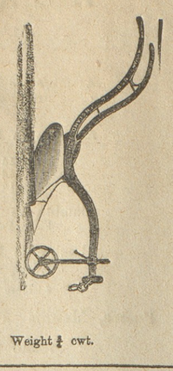
HOWARD'S CELEBRATED PLOUGHS

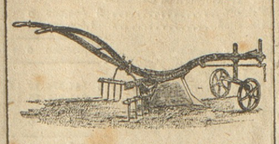
Howard's Small Ridging Plough



A small useful iron plough, fitted with a double mould board or earthing up body, and much used by Maize and vegetable growers.

Weight ¾ cwt.

Howard's Water-Furrow Plough



This is a modification of J. & F. Howard's Ridging Plough. It is used for making the water furrows for surface drainage on arable land; the peculiarity of its working is that the earth thrown up on each side of the furrow by the mould boards, is moved away from the edges of the furrow and is harrowed down level with the field, a level surface is thus left for the Reaping Machine, and drainage is facilitated.

With steel breasts, weight 1¼ cwt.

Howard's Potato Ploughs.

With a pair of horses, this implement will raise three to four acres of potatoes in day; it leaves fewer in the ground than hand digging, and the roots are raised with less bruising or scratching of the skins than by any other method. These Ploughs have stood the test of many years experience, and the demand grows larger annually.

D, fitted as above, weight 1¼ cwt.
D D, fitted as above, weight 1½ cwt.
S B, fitted as above, weight 1½ cwt.
B P, fitted as above, weight 2 cwt.

The above Machines kept in Stock by the Principal Hardware Merchants.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diphtheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism. Gout. Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
